McKENDREE
COLLEGE
FOUNDED AT LEBANON IN 1828, McKENDREE COLLEGE IS THE OLDEST COLLEGE IN AMERICA UNDER THE CONTINUOUS SUPERVISION OF THE METHODIST CHURCH. IT WAS NAMED FOR BISHOP WILLIAM McKENDREE. EDWARD AMES WAS THE FIRST PRINCIPAL, PETER AKERS THE FIRST PRESIDENT. PRESENT BUILDINGS DATE FROM 1850.

The McKendrean

"A College

Peter Cartwright

"A College 'mid plains is standing, standing there from olden days,

The Pioneer of prairies, first in untrodden ways,

For service and Christian culture, for efficiency she stands,

Her sons and daughters praise her, with voices, hearts and hands."

. . A COLLEGE IS STANDING

High upon the "Old Hill" at Lebanon, Illinois, stands a true "Pioneer of prairies." Though the school loyalty song has been since changed to read "Pioneer of learning," the original version caught the spirit of the oldest Methodist college in the United States.

. . . . Is Standing."

. . A COLLEGE IS STANDING

Into the establishing of that college went the dreams, faith, and prayers of many people. McKendree is not the largest college; she is not the wealthiest. Her buildings are not gleaming structures of steel and glass. But McKendree offers something else. At McKendree the seeker may find faith in God, and what may be more important, faith in himself.

. . A COLLEGE IS STANDING

Mellow brick buildings, ivy-covered walls, a twisting walk, the soft chimes of the chapel bell—these are McKendree College today. And McKendree of yesterday? Out of the swirling mists emerges a circuit rider. With tall hat, high boots, and well-worn saddle bags, he jogs along—Peter Cartwright—educator, farmer, author, and lecturer—one of the founders of McKendree.

Men Working!

In this, the 125th anniversary year of the founding of the college, we have found it only fitting to center our efforts around these 125 event-packed years. Thus, the theme of the 1953 McKendrean is dedicated to the history of our Alma Mater.

. . . A College Is Standing.

One September day in 1827 when the leaves were turning to a mass of flame and gold, twenty-seven circuit riders with their hymn books, reports, and Disciplines stowed in their saddle bags rode into Mount Carmel for the annual meeting of the conference.

Among them was Peter Cartwright, man of many abilities, who carried a petition from the citizens of Greene County asking that a seminary be established at Lebanon, Ill. The petition was referred to a committee, and the citizens of Lebanon began to plan and work. Such was the unpretentious conception of McKendree College, called then simply the Lebanon Seminary.

BISHOP J. MAGEE, resident Bishop of the Chicago Area of the Methodist church and a member of the McKendree College Board of Trustees, was Baccalaureate speaker for the 1952 graduating class.

Bishop Magee was graduated from Morningside College and Boston University School of Theology. Two honorary degrees, D.D., and LL.D., were conferred upon him.

Among other statesmen who have played prominent parts in the history of McKendree are Governor Charles S. Deneen, an alumnus of the college; Lawrence Y. Sherman, former United States Senator from Illinois; and Augustus French, Illinois Governor who became a member of the McKendree College faculty.

A College Is Standing.

. . . A COLLEGE IS STANDING

And the name McKendree? When Bishop McKendree visited Lebanon in 1830, he became so enthused about the progress of the school that he donated a quarter section of land near Shiloh. Thus, the school was named in that great clergyman's honor.

. . . A COLLEGE IS STANDING

From the halls of McKendree where the white-bearded leaders of the past gaze unperturbed out of their lofty frames, have gone great numbers of Christian men who have, in their own ways, contributed much to the building of a Christian society and a better world. In its 125 years, McKendree College has aided the Methodist Church in many ways. The entire church has been enriched by the ministers trained at McKendree.

Almost every hour during the school week, the sonorous tones of the chapel bell ring forth to summon students and teachers alike to class. For over 30 years, McKendree has possessed this—the oldest chapel bell in the United States. Its past is as mysterious as the tones it creates. Centuries before Columbus discovered America, the chime of this same bell was heard. Historians claim that it was cast in Spain during the 8th century! Brought to America during the early days of our country, it found its way to Florida, then to St. Louis, where it was recast, and finally to the Illinois State Fair in Centralia. It was here that Mr. Cobleigh, who was then president of McKendree, saw the bell and purchased it.

Resting now in the dark clock tower at McKendree, the bell is little seen by the outside world. Few people realize the romance of its long history.

. . . A COLLEGE IS STANDING

Another "first" is the building known as Old Main—the oldest assembly hall west of the Alleghenies. Of a plain, sturdy design, Old Main, today as in the past, houses the administrative staff, six class rooms, and Philo and Plato halls. The interior was recently redecorated and now is sparkling in fresh paint and new wood. The exterior remains much the same as when it was erected in 1850.

. . . A COLLEGE IS STANDING

The original building, a frame construction, was burned in 1856. It had been used for religious services and assemblies. This destructive fire led to the building of the Chapel, the landmark of McKendree. When one thinks of the college, the chapel automatically comes to mind. Located near Centennial Walk, this historic building was completed in 1858.

"Enduring and strong she stands there, stands upon our College Hill,

Though others may outnumber, she holds the first place still,

For beauty and truth and knowledge, and for service without bound,

Then let us raise our voices, until the plains resound."

The McKendree College Bearcats, during the 1952-1953 basketball season, have been as affable as a wet dog, as rebellious as the sea, and, at times more gentle than the wind in the summer.

It was an interesting campaign, sparkling with All-American opponents, exciting games, and a conference championship. Shooting one of the highest point averages in the history of McKendree, the Bearcats hit 83.5 points a game, shot a respectable 37 per cent of their field goal attempts, and won 19 of 27 games. They extended their undefeated home record to a span covering two and a half years. Five times they surged over the 100 mark.

McKendree's tallest and shortest basketeers are Gene Hoyt (6-7) and George Butler (5-8).

A just and fitting finale to this colorful season occurred on Feb. 28 when the Bearcats rose like dust before the whirlwind's force to ascend on and devour Ft. Leonard Wood, one of the world's greatest military teams. The Hilltoppers snarled like old dogs as Collie's quintet captivated the hearts of the applauding fans by forging ahead in the final minutes to win, 98 to 92.

Loy Dale Cruse, Gene Hoyt, George Butler, Richard Herrin, Burton Gedney, Charles Leckrone and Dean Heitman should receive laurels for their magnificent performance in this game.

It was an inconsistent season. The team accepted defeats that should have been victories. The Bearcats looked as if they were in a labyrinth as they hob-nobbed their way through the Vincennes, Southeast Missouri and Shurtleff games. Perhaps some defeats were more triumphant than victories. No McKendreans came home saddened after the 84-to-55 loss to the Phillips Oilers. It was rather a celebration for few teams had ever come within 30 points of these Olympic greats.

A good standard of sportsmanship along with basketball excellence are two criteria that have been and will continue to be well-known traditions at McKendree.
